Dear Mr Mc Connell

I refer to your recent request under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 in which you sought access to:

"All records relating to the Irish Jewish Museum in Portobello, including records from any other government departments, the Israeli State/Government, any other parties."

I am the deciding officer in this case.

I have identified 26 records which fall under the scope of your request. A schedule of records is attached to this letter. I have decided to grant you access to 7 records and part-grant access to 19 records. Where access to records has been part-granted, personal information has been redacted under Section 37(1) of the FOI Act. The records released to you are contained hereunder.
